“Nutritional lipids, alternative proteins, natural food colorings and innovative environmental solutions”

AlgaEurope is the place where algae experts meet every year!
AlgaEurope 2022 is glad to announce its Bronze Sponsor – Fermentalg.

As a worldwide expert in research and bioindustrial exploitation of microalgae, Fermentalg is a biotechnology company that offers concentrated products and natural extracts from innovative, sustainable and highly controlled industrial fermentation processes for human nutrition and environment market. Fermentalg business is the development, production and marketing of sustainable solutions and active ingredients from microalgae for nutrition, health and the environment. Nutritional lipids, alternative proteins, natural food colorings and innovative environmental solutions make up company's current and future offer.

Fermentalg last H1 2022 results:

- Sales of €6.2 million at the end of September 2022, up 67% compared to 2021
- Strong growth in DHA ORIGINS® sales recorded over 9 months;
- Start of production at industrial scale of pre-commercial samples of the natural blue food colorant on schedule;
- Results in line with expectations of the CO2 capture demonstration at the Cestas site.

In addition to the sales of DHA ORIGINS® and after having completed the last technical step in the development of its natural blue food colorant, Fermentalg is now engaged in the industrial transfer of its second product line.

The production at a leading German manufacturer will support the pre-commercialization of this new product launched with DDW, a subsidiary of the Givaudan Group and will enable the company to meet the first pre-commercial sample orders expected before the end of the year. In accordance with the terms of the partnership signed in June 2020, Fermentalg received a second payment of €1 million from DDW in the form of a repayable advance on future product deliveries.

You will be able to meet Fermentalg at AlgaEurope 2022 on 13 – 15 December in Rome, Italy. Registration is open!
