What participants think of the AlgaEurope conferences

AlgaEurope continues to be an annual must-attend event, where innovation, science and international networking intersect.

Daniel Mendonça Silva,
GreenCoLab

Great conference for networking, making new links, project participation opportunities and gaining new knowledge for commercial interests.

Stefan Kraan,
Oceana Organic Products Ltd

A great conference with lots of engaging talks within my own field as well as plenty of talks in different areas of research that sparked ideas to take back to my own.

James Kapp,
17Cicada Limited

AlgaEurope brings together Academia and Industry all over Europe and worldwide at highest level. Networking events and experiences are highlighted during the conference in line with great oral and poster presentations.

Stefan Matthes,
GICON

The AlgaEurope conference has been the place in Europe to network with our peers and to learn about the innovations in the field. Our team returns home stronger and with a bag full of contacts and knowledge. Looking forward for next year in Riga!
