

Official Statement – President of the European Council

Subject: A Clear Message to President Donald J. Trump

Mr. Trump,

Let me speak not only as a representative of Europe's leadership, but as a voice for its people — united, conscious, and no longer silent.

Enough with the stones.

You have built your legacy on disruption — pitting countries against each other, fueling instability, and profiting from division.

Your strategy is clear: create chaos, sell strength, and call it leadership.

We no longer accept that.

Europe will not be your bargaining chip, your customer base, or your echo chamber.

You imposed a 15% import tax on European goods while calling us allies.

You flood conflict zones with weapons, and then speak of peace.

You demand loyalty from the world — but offer none in return.

This ends now!

Here is Europe's position, and our ultimatum:

First — demonstrate your commitment to peace.

Halt all U.S. arms exports to active war zones for a period of 30 days.

No conditions. No deals. Just silence — and responsibility.

Second — lift the 15% import tax on European goods.

Trade follows trust. At this moment, there is none.

Failure to act will be met with unified consequences:

- Economic disengagement.
- Strategic distancing.
- Diplomatic isolation.

Europe does not threaten —

we set boundaries.

And when they are crossed, we act — decisively and together.

We believe in strength —

but strength used to build, not destroy.

To create bridges, homes, energy —

not bombs and broken alliances.

Mr. Trump,
you have a choice:
continue the politics of fear and manipulation,
or step aside for a world that demands better.

We stand firm.
We stand together.
And we move forward — with or without you.

The time of games is over.
The world has changed.

In unity and determination,

Yuri Hazeleger
President of the European Council
On behalf of the European Union
